

At the zoo I saw you zipping up the zipper on your jacket.

Mom said, “Where were you?”
I could not find you in the shed.”

“We were on the back steps with Liz,” said Ann. “We saw a big bee.”

Mom said, “Did you run from it?”
Did it buzz by you?”

Ann said, “Liz didn’t run.
She saw the bee land on a red flower.”

The Bee

“Did Liz see pollen on its legs?
Bees get pollen from flowers.”

“Liz saw fuzz on the big legs.
That must be pollen,” said Ann.

“The bee did land on Liz.
She had to zip up her jacket,”
said Sam.

Mom said, “You should not let bees do that. I would run very fast.”
